Allan Schiller

After a debut at the age of 10 with the Halle Orchestra under Sir John Barbirolli, and a performance at the Edinburgh Festival a year later, Allan became the first British student to gain a scholarship to the Moscow Conservatoire .

His career includes concerto appearances with all the major British orchestras and hundreds of BBC broadcasts as recitalist and chamber musician, as well as numerous recordings.

He has recently published his memoir of a life on the concert platform 'Music Made Me' and was awarded the B.E.M. for his services to music and charity.

This event has been organised by Keynsham Concerts. The aim of this not for profit group is bringing the arts to the local community.

Group members are : Simon Hazelwood, Leonora Mullen, Chris Unsworth-White , Paul Maggs and Ric Davidson of KTCRfm.
